Welcome to Advent: A Time That Reveals Our Lord's Humanity

Yesterday is gone, and tomorrow is yet to come. If we choose to spend today reliving the past and being anxious for the future, we may lose our opportunity to serve God. Our faith and joy urge us to live today, to work as faithful disciples of the Lord in this time and place. Distractions can keep us from recognizing the presence of God in our daily lives. Rather, we could be showing Christ's presence through the daily work of our hands. Personally, as your pastor, I am very touched by what we do for our parish as parishioners in all the areas that we are called upon to do so.

Today we celebrate the mystery of God's promise of salvation fulfilled in Christ. Christ was a man. Although we may know this, we often forget to consider the reality of it. Christ was a man and He descended from a lineage of fallen, broken humans such as us. We are reminded of this profound reality each Christmas. At Mass on Christmas Eve, we read the genealogy of Jesus from the Gospel of Matthew. With each name and generation, we are reminded of the humanity of our Lord, of His beautiful humility, and our own roles in salvation history. Advent is a time of waiting until the salvation promised will be ours when Christ comes again in glory.

After our national elections, Thanksgiving celebrations, and many other personal challenges, good or bad, including loss of family members and relations, we have many things on our minds. As a result, some people look for signs of the end of the world and attribute apocalyptic meaning to everything they see.

For them the message of Sacred Scripture imposes FEAR. On the other hand, many other people are dreamers who are caught up in the world the way they think it should be. They dream but without accepting the reality of today. FOR WITHOUT GOD, WE ARE NOTHING! Dreams of what the world could be should not keep us from the ministry that is necessary today.

As Catholics in the Diocese of Rochester today, there is joy to share, work to do, blessings to be received, and pain to alleviate. This Advent season we are called to make a difference to God by calling JESUS, COME HEAL US, and that will make the difference. Today is the day that we must serve God and prepare God's way. We don't know what tomorrow holds for us but we must resist becoming slaves to the past and victims of the future. Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promise of salvation. Jesus understands our human weakness and calls us to himself to receive forgiveness, grace, and strength as we await his coming. Advent is a time of preparation; of getting ready for the Messiah and it demands a response from us. Each of us needs to take the time to pay attention to our spiritual life, and today is a good day to start!

Get closer to God by praying, especially as a family.

Keep Christ in Christmas;
He's the Reason for the Season.

Go and make a good Confession in any of our churches.

Jesus, Come Heal Us
Advent Blessings,
Father Peter

Advent Day of Recollection for Priests

In addition to your daily prayer for our priests, please say a special prayer THIS Wednesday, December 4 for Bishop Matano, Fr. Peter, and all the priests of our diocese as they gather together for their Advent Day of Recollection. We all face challenges of varying degrees but our bishop and priests are challenged in many ways unlike us so it is important that we take a pause and pray for them each day during this holy season of Advent and beyond. This is also a good time to say a prayer for our seminarians and for more vocations to the holy priesthood and diaconate here in the Diocese of Rochester.

Please keep the following ordained in your prayers this week.

Dec 1	Dec 2	Dec 3	Dec 4	Dec 5	Dec 6	Dec 7

Something Special this Advent

*This Advent our Parish will be offering the transformational book by Dynamic Catholic, titled "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory – A Spiritual Journey." Life is a pilgrimage. It is a sacred journey toward our eternal home with God. Journey with Mother Teresa, John Paul II, Therese of Lisieux, Maximilian Kolbe, Thomas Aquinas, Sister Faustina, the Children of Fatima and Mary the Mother of God to experience Jesus in the Eucharist like never before.

As you begin your journey first read the Introduction, pgs. 1-16 and then go to files.dynamiccatholic.com/home/microsites/ise/33-Days-to-Eucharistic-Glory-Feast-Days-10-Year.pdf to select a Feast date in which you would like to finish your 33 day journey and make your Eucharistic Consecration. This table offers a number of Feast dates for 2024, 2025 and future years, along with a corresponding start date. As you journey through each of the 33 days, you can compliment the readings by the daily reflections of Matthew Kelly at www.dynamiccatholic.com/eucharistic-consecration-program/consecration-with-matthew-kelly.html and/or Father Jonathan Meyer at www.dynamiccatholic.com/eucharistic-consecration-program/consecration-with-fr-jonathan-meyer.html

May this journey forever change the way you spend your time with Jesus in the Eucharist.

**Books will be available NEXT weekend, December 7/8. Due to limited supply, please, 1 book per household.*

Boundless Compassion

Friday, Dec 13 from 12– 2:00 PM
St. John the Evangelist Parish Center

Deacon Lon will present an Advent reflection based on a retreat developed by Joyce Rupp.

Compassion is a way of life—an inner posture of how to be with suffering, both our own and others, and a desire to move that attitude into action.

Boundless Compassion fosters a transforming way of life. Participants explore compassion as a tender yet powerful inner capacity that helps cultivate well-being and overcome divisions. You will be introduced to the practical skill of compassionate listening. Come and experience this opportunity to deepen and expand the capacity for compassion in your life and that of others.

Friday, December 6

Happy  ST. NICHOLAS Day

SOCKTOBER

Thank you for your generous support of Sock-tober! The parish collected 1,665 pairs of socks along with some other assorted clothing to help those in need.

The confirmation class sorted and counted the socks as a service project as they journey towards their final sacrament of initiation.

The socks will be distributed first to the people of St. John the Evangelist community at our church and in local nursing homes. Right to Life agencies will receive socks from the Knights of Columbus via the Past Grand Knight, Rick Paoletti. Giving Tree recipients will benefit via Patty Hoag, and finally, I will deliver to a couple groups in the city to support the people in recovery of various addictions.

Special thanks to our Confirmation students as well as our catechists, Cristyn Simone and Jessica Wunsch, along with the parents and grandparents of the youth for sorting and preparing for deliveries.

Thank you and God Bless you all for your generosity,
Deacon Lon Smith

Reminder on Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) (sometimes referred to as "IRA Charitable Rollovers) as a Way to Donate to St. John's Parish

Under the legislation, donors aged 70½ or older can contribute up to $100,000 from their IRA's directly to qualified charities without having to pay income taxes on the money.

- The donor transfer up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to one or more qualified charities. This opportunity applies only to IRA's and no other types of retirement plans.
- The donor does not receive any goods or services in return for the rollover gift in order to qualify for tax-free treatment.
- The gift/check must be dated on or before Dec., 31, 2024 to qualify this year.
- The gift needs to be sent directly to the charitable organization which also has to be the payee for the gift.
- The official name and address to use for the receiver of the donation is:

Deacon Lon Smith Update:

- Socktober - about 2000 pairs of socks were collected
- Dady Concert – we will be able to start handing out tickets this weekend, more are allocated to our parish than the other parishes that are invited. It is a thank you to our parishioners and a chance to evangelize to other friends and family that we may invite.

Father Peter's Update:

- No church will close its doors if it has the means to sustain itself.
- The last few weeks our parish collections have been down about $11k and attendance has been poor. In October we buried 7 of our parishioners
- We all have to put our hands on deck. The efforts of the social ministry and Deacon Lon and his wife are much appreciated. We need to bring people back to the church
- We recently had Socktober, Greece Food Shelf Food drive and the pie fundraiser
- We will be having our Thanksgiving Day food collection which will benefit the Greece Food Shelf
- Dady concert is coming to St John's on Saturday, December 7 at 7pm sponsored by Knights of Columbus. Tickets are free but required for entrance. Free will offering will be taken and the tickets will be distributed following Masses November 9/10 and November 16/17

Choose 1 of 2 sessions (not both): 1:30 'til 3:30 PM or 6:30 'til 8:30 PM. We need council members to spread the word. There will be a bulletin article from the Task Force in the Nov 17 bulletin
- Our traditional boiler fund envelope has been combined with the capital improvement envelope and beginning in 2025 it will be Boiler Maintenance/Capital Improvement

- At the last task force meeting our parish was very well represented and that was encouraging to see. At the next meeting, there will be a chance to submit your questions before the meeting to make sure they are addressed. We used to have 325 priests in our diocese now we only have 85 priests.

Coffee Hours: Still looking for ministries to host February and March. Social Ministry, thank you for a great coffee hour/FALL FESTIVAL. Even Mother Nature couldn't put a damper on this event. GREAT JOB!!!!

Pies for the Holidays: From Special Touch Bakery. At least 140 Pies have been ordered. Delivery date: 11/18/2024. Orders are closed now, and we will get a percentage of the sales. This is something new for St. John's – LET' S EMBRACE THIS – full steam ahead.

Notes and responses/feedback from that meeting have been made available by the Task Force and were e-mailed from St. John's to each of our PPC & Finance members today. A printed copy is also provided to each member at this meeting tonight. Fr. Peter asks that each member be sure to read these documents. BLESSINGS OF FINANCIAL

Due to the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, our November 23/24 Collection and Mass attendance will be noted in Next Weekend's bulletin.

Pies, Pies, and more Pies

Our Parish Pie Fundraiser wrapped up a few weeks ago and thanks to the support and generosity of so many of you, 150 pies were sold! There were so many delicious varieties to select from and the most popular pie ordered was good old fashioned Apple Crumb pie.

Through these sales, our parish raised $900.00 which has been deposited into the St. John's general account.

We take this opportunity to say THANK YOU to Social Ministry; namely, Maureen Beattie for bringing this fundraiser idea to St. John's and making it a success. Together with volunteers, Bob & Barb Gotham, Nancy Lader, Carolyn Kerhaert, and Nick & Eileen Verdino, distribution of the pies ran very smoothly. It is our hope that everyone who purchased a pie or two or three will enjoy them whether it be at the holidays or some time in between.

Online Giving

You can make your weekly, monthly, annual and one-time donations from your checking or savings account, or by using a credit or debit card, electronically, from your own computer.
